Welcome to Howe Gardens

Spring is "just around the corner," so we invite you to visit us and choose some of the fine daylilies and iris we have to offer.

Our collection is large and includes the best of the old favorites, as well as most of the good new introductions.

This list is not long and does not include many fine varieties which will be listed when stock permits. If there are any varieties that you want and that we do not list, please feel free to write, for we may have a plant to spare.

Local customers, will as usual, have a choice from a great many varieties, not included with this list.

We do not offer cash discounts, but do send extra plants with all orders and welcome your suggestions as to varieties you want as extras.

We ship only good strong plants, ones that should do well for you the first year.

The best time for seeing the Iris will be the first week in June. Daylilies will be blooming "from spring 'til frost," with the best display during July.

O. R. HOWE, JR.

Daylilies

Hemerocallis (Daylilies), are the most satisfactory perennial for continuous bloom in your garden, "from spring 'til frost."

With a good selection of varieties, you may have much beauty in your garden, no matter what soil or climatic conditions you have.

Daylilies, now in clear shades of yellow, pink, rose, purple, red and orange; and with the beautiful bi-colors and banded patterns, are a big improvement on the old "Lemon Lily" and "Roadside Lily," of grandmother's day.

Our's is a trial garden; with new varieties added as they are introduced; and as stock permits, the "cream of the crop" are catalogued.

If there is any variety that you want, and it is not listed, please write; for we may have a plant to spare.

While Daylilies are easy to grow, always remember, a choice Daylily, like any other fine flower, deserves and appreciates good care.

Spring is an excellent time for planting. We ship plants in April and May; also in August, September, and the first part of October.
